CHARLES-TOWN, JULY 11.

IN Conſequence of the Advertiſements lately publiſhed by the General Committee, and other proper Means uſed, to obtain the Senſe of the whole Colony on the preſent alarming State of American Affairs; on WEDNESDAY laſt, the 6th Inſtant, the LARGEST BODY of the moſt reſpectable Inhabitants that had ever been ſeen toge her upon any public Occaſion here, or perhaps any where in America (for Gentlemen of the greateſt Property and Character, animated with an ardent Zeal to relieve their ſuffering Brethren, and to preſerve their own Freedom and the Birthrights of their Poſterity, notwithſtanding the extreme Inconvenience of the Seaſon, from even the remoteſt Parts of the Country, attended) met at the Exchange in this Town, in order to "conſider of the Papers, Letters and Reſolutions that had "been tranſmitted to the ſaid Committee from the Northern Colonies; and alſo of the Steps neceſſary to be "purſued, in Union with the Inhabitants of our Siſter-"Colonies on the Continent, to avert the Dangers im-"pending over American Liberties in general, by the late "hoſtile Act of Parliament againſt Boſton, and other ar-"bitrary Meaſures of the Britiſh Miniſtry,"—and, after chooſing the Hon. Col. POWELL (who had preſided at all the former General Meetings) for their Chairman, and the ſame Secretary as had hitherto ſerved, continued in ſolemn Deliberation upon theſe important Matters, on that and the two ſucceeding Days, during which the following Reſolves were UNANIMOUSLY entered into, viz.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 6.

RESOLVED,

THAT His Majeſty's Subjects in North-America owe the ſame Allegiance to the Crown of Great-Britain, that is due from His Subjects born in Great-Britain.

RESOLVED, That His Majeſty's Subjects in America are intitled to all the inherent Rights and Liberties of his natural-born Subjects within the Kingdom of Great-Britain.

RESOLVED, That it is repugnant to the Rights of the People, that any Taxes ſhould be impoſed on them, unleſs with their own Conſent, given perſonally, or by their Repreſentatives.

RESOLVED, That it is a fundamental Right which his Majeſty's Liege Subjects are entitled unto, That no Man ſhould ſuffer in his Perſon or Property without a fair Trial, and Judgment given, by his Peers, or by the Law of the Land.

RESOLVED, That all Trials of Treaſon, Miſpriſion of Treaſon, or for any Felony or Crime whatever, committed and done in this His Majeſty's Colony, by any Perſon or Perſons reſiding therein, ought, of Right, to be had and conducted in and before His Majeſty's Courts held within the ſaid Colony, according to the fixed and known Courſe of Proceeding, and that the Seizing any Perſon or Perſons reſiding in this Colony, ſuſpected of any Crime whatever committed therein, and ſending ſuch Perſon or Perſons to Places beyond the Sea to be tried, is oppreſſive and illegal, and highly derogatory to the Rights of Britiſh Subjects; as thereby the ineſtimable Privilege of being tried by a Jury from the Vicinage, as well as the Benefit of ſummoning and procuring Witneſſes on ſuch Trial, will be taken away from the Party accuſed.

RESOLVED, That the Statute made in the 35th Year of Henry VIII. Chap. 2, entitled, "an Act for the Trial of Treaſons committed out of the King's Dominions" does not extend, and cannot, but by an arbitrary and cruel Conſtruction, be conſtrued to extend, to Treaſons, Miſpriſions of Treaſons, or Concealment of Treaſons committed in any of His Majeſty's American Colonies, where there is ſufficient Proviſion, by the Law of the Land, for the ſpeedy Trial of all ſuch Perſons as are charged with, and for the due Puniſhment of, thoſe Offences.

RESOLVED, That the late Act for ſhutting up the Port of Boſton, and the two Bills relative to Boſton, which, by the laſt Accounts from Great-Britain, had been brought into Parliament, there read, and committed, are of the moſt alarming Nature to all his Majeſty's Subjects in America—are calculated to deprive many Thouſands Americans of their Rights, Properties and Privileges, in a moſt cruel, oppreſſive and unconſtitutional Manner—are moſt dangerous Precedents, and, if carried immediately at the People of Boſton, are manifeſtly and glaringly ſhew, if the Inhabitants of that Town are intimidated into a mean Submiſſion to ſaid Acts, that the Rights are deſtroyed for all the Colonies; when not even the Shadow of Liberty to his Perſon, or of Security in his Property, will be left to any of His Majeſty's Subjects reſiding on the American Continents.

RESOLVED THEREFORE, That not only the Dictates of Humanity, but the ſolideſt Principles of true Policy and Self-Preſervation, make it abſolutely neceſſary for the Inhabitants of all the Colonies in America to aſſiſt and ſupport the People of Boſton, by all lawful Ways in their Power; and eſpecially, to leave no juſtifiable Means unattempted to procure a Repeal of thoſe Acts immediately relative to them, and alſo of all others affecting the conſtitutional Rights and Liberties of America in general.

THURSDAY, JULY 7.

As the beſt Means to effect this moſt deſirable End:

RESOLVED, That Henry Middleton, John Rutledge, Thomas Lynch, Chriſtopher Gadſden and Edward Rutledge, Eſqrs. be and they are hereby nominated and appointed Deputies, on the Part and Behalf of this Colony, to meet the Deputies of the ſeveral Colonies of North-America, in general Congreſs, the firſt Monday in September next, at Philadelphia, or at any other Time or Place that may be generally agreed on; there to conſider the Act lately paſſed, and Bills depending in Parliament with Regard to the Port of Boſton and Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay; which Act and Bills, in the Precedent and Conſequences, affect the whole Continent—alſo the Grievances under which America labours, by Reaſon of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament that impoſe Taxes or Duties for raiſing a Revenue, and lay unneceſſary Reſtraints and Burdens on Trade—and of the Statutes, parliamentary Acts, and Royal Inſtructions which make an invidious Diſtinction between His Majeſty's Subjects in Great-Britain and in America—with full Power and Authority, in Behalf of us and our Conſtituents, to concert, agree to, and effectually proſecute, ſuch legal Meaſures (by which we, for ourſelves and them, moſt ſolemnly engage to abide) as in the Opinion of the ſaid Deputies, and of the Deputies ſo to be aſſembled, ſhall be moſt likely to obtain a Repeal of the ſaid Acts, and a Redreſs of thoſe Grievances.

RESOLVED, That we do agree to pay the Expence of the Five Gentlemen now choſen, to be ſent upon the above Buſineſs.

RESOLVED, That while the oppreſſive Acts relative to Boſton are enforced, we will chearfully, from Time to Time, contribute towards the Relief of ſuch poor Perſons there, whoſe unfortunate Circumſtances, occaſioned by the Operation of thoſe Acts, may be thought to ſtand in Need of moſt Aſſiſtance.

RESOLVED, That we will, by all Means in our Power, endeavour to preſerve Harmony and Union amongſt all the Colonies.

FRIDAY, JULY 8.

RESOLVED, That Copies of all the Reſolutions entered into by the Inhabitants of this Province at the preſent Meeting, be tranſmitted to every Colony on this Continent, from Canada to Weſt-Florida; accompanied with a Letter, to each reſpectively, ſigned by the Chairman, inviting them to unite with us: And that, as Captain Hunt had voluntarily detained his Veſſel for ſome Days, on Purpoſe to carry the Tranſactions of the preſent Meeting to New-York; in order to forward his Departure, the Chairman be deſired to quit the Chair, and immediately diſpatch Copies of the Reſolutions now entered into by Capt. Hunt: And that the Thanks of the Meeting be given to Capt. Hunt. †

RESOLVED,

That a Committee of Ninety-nine Perſons be now appointed, to act as a General Committee, to correſpond with the Committees of the other Colonies, and do all Matters and Things neceſſary to carry their Reſolutions into Execution; and that any Twenty-one of them met together may proceed on Buſineſs—their Power to continue till the next General Meeting.—And in Caſe of the Death, Departure from the Province, or Refuſal to act of any or either of them, the Pariſh or Diſtrict for which ſuch Perſon (dying, removing, or refuſing to act) was choſen, ſhall fill up the Vacancy.

The ſaid Committee being choſen, the Thanks of the Meeting were delivered, in much the ſame Terms to the Hon. Mr. LOWNDES, as they had been to Col. Powell. The Secretary was alſo honoured with a like Approbation of his Conduct. And then the General Meeting was diſſolved.

In the Courſe of the Debates during theſe important Tranſactions (for every Point underwent the fulleſt Diſcuſſion) the greateſt Unanimity appeared; each one conſidered his Neighbour as a free born American, and overlooked all Diſtinctions. As in the Deluge of old the Wolf and the Lamb ſwam together, ſo the Senſe of our common Danger extinguiſhed all private Conſiderations. The Set of Advocates for the preſent miſguided Adminiſtration, whoſe Chains had often been heard to clatter in private Companies, were all ſtruck dumb, and kept aloof from the public Debates. The Colony was ready to go into Reſolutions of Non-Importation, and Non-Exportation if it had been found abſolutely neceſſary; but it was thought moſt proper to inveſt our Deputies with abſolute Power, to agree with the other Members of a Congreſs in any Meaſures; that ſo they might take Place from one End of this extenſive Continent to the other, on one and the ſame Day: And ſeveral of the principal Merchants made a public Declaration, in Behalf of the Reſt, that, in order to quiet the Minds of the People, they were ready and willing to enter into any Agreement, not only to deſiſt importing Britiſh or Eaſt-India Goods, Wines and Slaves, but alſo to countermand all Orders already ſent, till the Event of the Congreſs ſhould be known; which Declaration was received with a loud and general Plaudite.—Rejoice ye Friends of Freedom in GEORGIA! and haſten to do ſo likewiſe. Be comforted ye oppreſſed Boſtonians! and exult ye Northern Votaries of Liberty! that the ſacred Rays of Freedom, which uſed to beam from you on us, are now reverberated, with double Efficacy, back upon yourſelves, from your weaker Siſter CAROLINA, who ſtands foremoſt in a Reſolution to ſacrifice her All in your Defence. And tremble, ye Minions of Slavery!—a Blow will ſoon be ſtruck, if you urge us to that Extremity, which will convince you, that one Soul animates three Millions of brave Americans, though extended over a long Tract of Two Thouſand Miles. Ye vainly thought we were a Rope of Sand; but you will find, unleſs you are put on the ſame Footing with Engliſhmen, before Nine Months, Millions of People, who depend on America for their daily Bread, will curſe you with their dying Groans.

Three of the preſent Deputies appointed to repreſent this Colony, in a General Congreſs to be ſoon held to the Northward, viz. Chriſtopher Gadſden, Thomas Lynch, and John Rutledge, Eſqrs. were our Deputies at the former Congreſs.

Friday Evening, the new GENERAL COMMITTEE met, and choſe Col. CHARLES PINCKNEY, (one of the Repreſentatives for the Pariſh of St. Philip, Charles-Town) for their Chairman, and Peter Timothy, for their Secretary. The ſaid Committee alſo met this Day, when they agreed to have ſtated Meetings, and to fix upon Wedneſday the 20th Inſtant, at ſix o'Clock in the Evening, at the Houſe of Mr. Charles Ramage, and on every other Wedneſday after, at the ſame Hour and Place.

Copies of the Reſolutions of the late General Meetings, accompanied with a circular Letter, have already been diſpatched to every Colony on this Continent, from Canada to Georgia inclusive.

Three Hundred and Fifty more Barrels of Rice are now ready to be ſhipped, as ſoon as a proper Veſſel can be procured to carry it, for the Relief of the poor Sufferers in Boſton.

Laſt Thurſday fortnight Doct. Thomas-Tudor Tucker, was married to the very amiable Miſs Eſther Evans, Daughter of Mr. George Evans, of St. George's Pariſh.

About the ſame Time died, much regretted, Mrs. Frances Spence, the amiable Conſort of Doctor Peter Spence, of Ponpon, and Daughter of Joſeph Brown, Eſq; of George-Town.

On Tueſday laſt the Diligence Packet-Boat, under the Command of Capt. John Fargie, arrived with the Mails from Jamaica and Penſacola.

The Ship Stag, Robert Cook, Maſter, bound for London, having ſtruck in going over our Bar laſt Thurſday, and received ſome Damage, is waiting for a fair Wind to put in again, in order to refit.

On Saturday laſt, Mr. Richard Luſhington, Merchant, was married to the agreeable Mrs. Charity Bull, Widow.

An ELEGY, ſeveral other poetical Pieces, and ſome on political Subjects, have been received but cannot be inſerted in this Paper, 'til we ſhall have more Room.

* Here it may not be improper to acquaint ſuch of our Readers as had not an Opportunity of being preſent, That there were three ſeveral Queſtions put upon this Reſolve, 1ſt, Whether the Appointment of Deputies was a neceſſary Meaſure? 2dly, Whether they ſhould be invested with the Powers therein expreſſed? 3dly, Whether the Number of Deputies to be choſen to repreſent this Province ſhould be Five? All which were carried unanimouſly in the Affirmative. Theſe Queſtions being thus determined, it was propoſed, and in like Manner agreed to, that the Deputies ſhould be choſen by Ballot; that every free white Perſon, reſiding in this Province, ſhould be entitled to a Vote; that the Poll ſhould be opened at two o'Clock and be cloſed at ſix. A balloting Box was accordingly provided; the Votes were received; and at Midnight, in the Preſence of ſeveral Hundred Spectators, the Election was declared, in Favour of the Gentlemen whoſe Names are inſerted in the Reſolution.—And that Lord North may not be miſinformed in this Caſe, as he has been in moſt others, by being told that this was the Meeting of a Rabble, and the Election of a Mob, we ſhall take the Liberty here to ſubjoin a Liſt of the Members of our preſent Hon. Commons Houſe of Aſſembly; all of whom voted, except the very few whoſe Names are printed in Italics, who were by Sickneſs or Accident prevented from attending.

BOSTON, JUNE 9.

MONDAY afternoon two young gentlemen came into Boston from the county of Worcester, relating that they had been alarmed with the report that a regiment of soldiers had been posted at the entrance of this city, to cut off its communication with the country—Many respectable persons, they said, had assembled upon the occasion and sent off these persons on Sabbath evening, to ride all night, and return with intelligence as soon as possible, determining that, in case they were confirmed in the truth of the report, they would forthwith march in, ten thousand strong, and disress the troops at all events. Their express informed us that whatever might be the minds of the citizens relative to a surrender of their liberties, they would not find the country at all disposed to esteem themselves concluded in their Act. They freely expressed their sense, that by the acts of the British parliament lately passed, and the bills now pending therein, our charter is utterly vacated, and the compact between this province and the crown of Great-Britain being dissolved, they are at full liberty to combine together in what manner and form they think best for mutual security.

We hear that there are near thirty sail of wood vessels, at Marblehead from the eastward bound to this place, who are obliged to unload and load again before they are permitted to take their departure.

In the Boston Port-Bill we have a striking specimen of the justice and lenity of a modern British administration. The ship-carpenters, house-wrights, bricklayers, &c. as well as those tradesmen connected with trade are now turned out of all business, as none of these articles are suffered to be brought into town by water, the people who used to bring them in boats within a circle of 60 miles are farmers in the interior; Boston is now deprived of trade with the people of a sea coast of several hundred miles extent eastward, and about 150 miles southward, who used to bring their produce and take their supply in exchange.

SUBSTANCE of Lord NORTH's SPEECH in the House of Commons upon introducing the Bill for the impartial administration of justice, in the cases of persons questioned for any acts done by them in the execution of the laws, or for the suppression of riots and tumults, in the province of Massachusetts-Bay, in New-England.

AFTER the American papers were read, Lord North arose, and said he meant now to propose a third bill, which he hoped would effectually secure the province of Massachusetts-Bay from future disturbances;—I would not, says his Lordship, wish to see the least doubt or imperfection remain in this plan, which we have adopted: If there does, the consequence may be, that it may produce bloodshed. That the whole plan may be clear and decisive, that every part of it may be properly supported; and I trust that such a measure as this, which we have now taken, will shew to that country, that this nation is roused to defend their rights, and protect the security of peace in its colonies, and when roused, that the measures which they take are not cruel nor vindictive, but necessary and efficacious. Temporary distress requires temporary life; I shall therefore only propose this bill for the limited time of three or four years. We must consider that every thing we have is at stake, and the question is very shortly this, Whether they shall continue the subjects of Great-Britain or not? This I propose as the last measure that Parliament will take; after which requires that his Majesty's servants shall be vigilant in the execution of their duty, and keep a watchful eye over every encroachment against the power we shall now use; and not suffer the least degree of disobedience to our measures to take place in that country. Such a watchful and careful eye to prevent the first rise of disobedience, may be sure to be preventive of future consequential mischiefs. The usual and customary relief of troops that is ordered for that country, is ordered in the first place for Boston; four regiments being the usual relief; Governor Hutchinson comes home, and his Majesty has appointed General Gage as Commander and Governor in Chief; a man whose great abilities, and extensive knowledge of that country, will give him superior advantage, and his occasional residence there will prevent him from shewing any impolitic partiality to the Americans, and thereby enforce a due observance to those measures which we have taken, and shall send out. There is one thing I much wish which is the punishment of those individuals, who have been the ringleaders and forerunners of those mischiefs. Our attention will be continually alive in that point. A prosecution has been already ordered against them by his Majesty's servants, but I cannot promise myself any very good effect, until this law shall have received its proper force. His Lordship said, with permission, he will make the motion first That the Chairman be directed to move for leave to bring in a bill for the impartial administration of justice, in the cases of persons mentioned for any acts done by them in the execution of the laws, or for the suppression of riots and tumults, in the province of Massachusetts-Bay, in New England.

LONDON, APRIL 26.

FRIDAY's DEBATE on the second reading of the Bill to regulate the Civil Government of the Province of MASSACHUSETTS-BAY.

MR. Rose Fuller spoke a few words against the Bill, on account of the papers respecting the Charters of America not being laid before the House, according to order.

Sir George Saville spoke a considerable time on the sacred light in which Charters ought to be held, and the impropriety of their condemning the Americans, without a hearing of of BOTH parties, which, he said, was contrary to the rules laid down in every Court of Law in this kingdom. He said, the House of Commons ought to have heard Mr. Bollan, as Agent from Boston, and censured their conduct much for hurrying the business off in such a slovenly manner; he likewise proposed that America should be heard in her own defence, although it were twelve months hence.

Mr. Welborne Ellis answered him, and insisted on its being the duty of the Crown to take away or alter Charters if they found them deficient of the purpose intended. He contended, that the American Papers on the table were sufficient evidence of the fact, and that it was not necessary for any further hearing on either side. He said, there arose great difficulties in their present form of Government, which often retarded business, and which this Bill would remedy.

General Conway was much in favour of America, and insisted they had done no more then any person would do when he found himself imposed upon; that Parliament ought to hear America at her bar, and know what she had to say in her defence, before they condemned her. He said, we had been the aggressors for these six or seven years last past, in enacting such a variety of laws against them.

Lord North insisted that the Bill did not take away their Charter, that it was not political EXPEDIENCY but political NECESSITY; he seemed to lay much stress upon his Majesty's subjects being abused by the tarring and feathering Committee; and said it was ridiculous to talk of bringing them to the bar, for they would not attend if sent for.

Sir George Young contended much for hearing the Bostonians before the Bill passed.

Governor Johnstone imputed the whole of the disturbances to the taking away the Governor's power, and said, he imagined the accounts sent home were either false or partial.

Mr. C. Jenkinson was much for pursuing the measures proposed in the bills; he said it was right to take away charters when they were abused, and to govern the Americans, as they were not capable to govern themselves.

Mr. Harris was greatly for proceeding against the Bostonians with rigour; said all the disturbances there lately were owing to our lenity for these last twelve years.

Sir Edward Astley answered him very smartly and said, it was better to see twelve years lenity, than to put these bills into execution, which would probably occasion twelve years bloodshed.

Mr. Ward insisted on Government's right to take away their charter.

Governor Pownall condemned the bills very strongly, and the Governor of America, for not acting to quell the riots, which, he said, he might without the advice of the Council, whom he said were blameable, not criminal; and assured the House the Americans would resist the execution of the bills.

Mr. Rigby insisted much on Government's right to tax America, and desired they would put themselves on their guard, as America intended to decide the right by force of arms.

Two other members spoke trifling; but on the question being put, the Minister carried it without a division.

APRIL 27.

The Earl of Chatham is indisposed with the gout at his seat at Hayes, which has prevented his attendance in Parliament.

Yesterday Lord Viscount Pitt, son of the Earl of Chatham, was introduced to his Majesty, his Lordship being soon to set out to join his regiment destined for America.

APRIL 30.

Wednesday sailed for Portsmouth the following transports, viz. the Charming Nancy, Reverson; the Thomas and Richard, Parke; and the Pallas, Holt, with the 43d regiment, for Boston; and the Wentworth, Salmon; the Ocean, Trindal; and the Sea-Venture, Hall, with the 4th regiment, for Quebeck.

A scheme is in agitation for establishing a mint for silver coinage at New-York, in America, for the better regulation of American currency, which will shortly be executed.

MAY 2.

Yesterday morning an express was received at Lord Rochford's office, at seven o'clock, from Lord Stormont, at the Court of Versailles, and another from Boston at nine, both which were sent to his Majesty at the Queen's Palace; on which account Lord North, and most of the Great Officers of State, were sent for, where they held a Cabinet Council.

A very full House and warm and long debates are expected to ensue on the third reading of the two Boston bills this day in the House of Commons.

Extract of a letter from Toulon, April 9.

"We are hard at work here in fitting out four ships of the line, two of 74 and the other of 60 guns, besides three frigates of 26 guns each: This squadron, it is said, is destined for the West-Indies, and is ordered to be ready to put to sea by the 10th of next month."

MAY 3.

A large body of troops is ordered to be embarked for the West-Indies as soon as possible.

A letter from Brussels says, that the whole French fleet is fitting out, and that the dock yard has been shut for a fortnight past, to prevent any observations being made of their proceedings.

From recent advices received by several Merchants from France and Spain, it is their opinion that we are like to come to a rupture with those Kingdoms in less than six months.

Yesterday Mr. Dunning spoke for near two hours in the House of Commons against the Boston Regulating and Justice Bills.

The many Advantages derived to Countries from natural Enquiries, are obvious to all; but where others have reaped One, America may a Thousand:—It is the Duty of every Individual that is in the least capable, to study more or less, for the general Good of the Country that he lives in, as a Return for the many Benefits he may have reaped from that Country: He that has it in his Power, and adheres not to this Maxim, may be justly termed a Wretch who has received the greatest Benefits from another, and yet would stand by and see that Reliever of his Wants, stabbed to the Heart by a Ruffian, and not offer him the least Assistance.

I am happy to have it in my Power to make public for the general Good, more than Two Hundred Physical Roots and Herbs, with Gums, Balsams, Fossils, &c. &c. each with experienced Virtues, not made Mention of by any Physical or Botanick Writers; with numerous other useful Discoveries of the utmost Consequence for further Improvements to the Arts, Manufactures, &c.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, APRIL 19, 1774.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by His Royal Instruction, dated at ST. JAMES's, the 3d Day of February, 1774, has thought proper to establish new Orders and Regulations for the future Disposal of his Lands in this Province, excepting to such reduced Officers and Soldiers as Lands are directed to be granted to by his Royal Proclamation dated October 7th, 1773, but has, nevertheless, been most graciously pleased to signify, That it is not his Intention that those Persons who have hitherto obtained Orders in Council, or Warrants of Survey, for Lands in America, should be precluded, by the said Instruction, from carrying those Orders and Warrants into Execution, conformable to the Directions contained therein, or, that any Claim to a Grant for Lands, founded on any antecedent Step that can, in Equity, give a Title to such Grant, should be thereby precluded:

I DO HEREBY GIVE PUBLIC NOTICE THEREOF to all Persons concerned, and the several Officers in this Province are hereby directed to carry the said Warrants and Orders into Execution, that Grants may be passed for the same: But,

That the new Regulations, directed by the said Instruction, may not be impeded, ALL PERSONS are hereby required to carry the said Grants through the several Offices within Three Months from the Date hereof,

By Order of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor,

JAMES SIMPSON, C. C.

PUBLIC TREASURY, March 4th, 1774.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

THE Public Treasurers would gladly give the Public such a Description of the Counterfeit Bills now passing in this Province, as might effectually guard every Person from being imposed upon: But there are such a Variety of them (every Emission since the Year 1748 being counterfeited, except the Tax Certificates for the Indian Trade) that it is impossible. The only two distinguishing Marks that run through the most of them are these, viz. The Figures in the numbering are very bad, and the Names of the Signers are impressed by the Plate, instead of being wrote with a Pen.

March 18th, 1774.

RESOLVED,

ORDERED, That the Clerk do give public Notice in the Gazettes of the said Resolution.

By Order of the House,

THOMAS FARR, jun. Clerk.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

THAT this House will for the future, upon the Certificate on Oath of the Majority of the Justices and Freeholders who try Slaves, of the Condemnation and Execution of any Slave and Slaves for Felony, Murder, or any other Crime to be hereafter committed, and of the Value of such Slave or Slaves, PROVIDE such Sum or Sums, as a Compensation to the Owner or Owners of such Slave or Slaves, as shall appear to this House reasonable, additional to the Sum of Two Hundred Pounds provided by Law.

ORDERED, That the Clerk of this House do give public Notice of the said Resolution: and also, it is expected, that all Magistrates and other Persons who shall be concerned in the Valuation of any Slave or Slaves so condemned and executed, do have particular Regard to the Nature of the Offence which such Slave or Slaves are convicted of, and how much the Value of the said Slave or Slaves are lessened thereby.

By Order of the House,

THOMAS FARR, jun. Clerk.

The Publishers having examined the Performances of the best Masters in this Branch of engraving, have resolved to give the Preference to one of the greatest Merit, being determined to spare no Expence with Respect to the Neatness of the Engraving, the fineness of the Paper, and Beauty of the Colouring, to render this one of the most elegant Performances of the Kind in AMERICA. Those Gentlemen who are inclined to patronize the Undertaking, are requested to give in their Names soon that a List of the Subscribers may be printed.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are received by Peter Timothy, and Charles Crouch, Printers, Robert Wells, and Nicholas Langford, Bookfellers, Bonneau & Wilson, and William Doughty, Merchants in Charles-Town; Anthony Bonneau, Merchant in George-Town; Edward Davies, Merchant in Beaufort; and by several other Gentlemen in Town and Country.

AS there are already two Maps of this Colony extant, it may be necessary to give some Reasons for undertaking a Third, and as this is chiefly owing to the Inaccuracies observed in the others, we need only particularize the several Alterations, Corrections, and Additions in the present one, that the Public may judge whether they are of Consequence sufficient to induce such a Publication. In doing this, we hope we shall not offend the Constructors of those Maps, as the Errors we are under the Necessity of pointing out, are not imputed to Want of Abilities, but to the Nature of the Subject, which will not admit of Perfection, but by gradual Advances.

I. The several District Lines are laid down from actual Surveys, which in the first Map are all, except one, omitted, and in the second, drawn from the Directions of the Circuit-Court Act, the Consequence of which is, that many Houses, and other remarkable Places, represented by them to be in one District, are, in Reality, found to be many Miles within another; to which we may add, that in the last Map, One Half of the District of Ninety-Six, is included in that of Camden.—We have, in the Course of our Survey, carefully noted every River, Creek, Swamp, Bay, Branch, Road, &c. in our Way, and reduced them to their proper Places, and made many Additions of others not to be found in the other Maps.

II. The Townships of Williamsburgh, Orangeburgh, Frederickfburgh, Kingston, Hillsborough, and Belfast, (the two last misnamed New-Bourdeaux, and Londonderry) being erroneously laid down, are considerably corrected; and those of Queensborough, Boonesborough, and the Welch Tract, omitted in the other Maps, are here added.—The Bounds of the Parishes of Prince Frederick, St. Mark, and St. David, not defined in the first Map, and erroneously done in the second, are laid down from actual Survey; and the Bounds of St. Matthew, and St. James, Goose Creek, likewise undetermined in both, are here inserted.

III. Exclusive of the Advantages derived from laying out the several District Lines, the Publishers have been able in the Course of their Practice to make many other Corrections and Additions from actual Surveys, particularly of the whole Parishes of St. James, Santee; a considerable Part of the Parishes of St. John, Berkley County, St. Thomas, Christ-Church, St. Matthew, St. Mark, St. David, Prince Frederick, St. Paul, and St. John, Colleton-County, the new Acquisition, also Santee River, for the Distance of One Hundred Miles, including the Creeks and Islands near its Mouth, and the Harbour of North-Edisto from its Entrance to the Confluence of North and South-Edisto Rivers.

IV. The Meridians are drawn as reflecting the Number of Miles contained in a Degree of Longitude in these Latitudes, shewing the Difference of Time between the City of London and Charles-Town, or between any two Places in the Colony; a Circumstance neglected in the other MAPS.

V. In the nominal Part the Orthography is corrected, and many Places appearing without Names, that Defect is here supplied.

VI. The several Houses are omitted for this Reason, that as the Proprietors of them are continually changing, the Insertion of them would serve no other End in the Course of a few Years, than to perplex and confuse, besides, as it would be impossible to insert them all, we might incur the Charge of Partiality.—We hope this will be considered as an Improvement rather than a Defect, as every Gentleman may determine the precise Situation of his own House, by observing the River, Creek, or Swamp, on which it is situated, or its Distance from any Church, Chapel, Tavern, Road, Bridge, or Ferry.

VII. Lastly, we may mention the Size, as another Advantage, as in every Map or Plan it is necessary for the Eye to command the Whole at one View, in order to form a just Idea of the Relation and Connection between the several Parts, while at the same Time, it should be so large as to avoid the Confusion occasioned by being too much crouded: In the first Respect, the large Map is particularly defective, being rather an Incumbrance than an Ornament to any Apartment; the small one is on the other Extreme.—We hope the present one will be found in a proper Medium; the Proportions between the three being nearly as 3, 7, and 9, and yet by a different Disposition of the Compartment, and other detached Parts, it will be but three Inches wider, and no deeper than the small one.

To conclude, from the above Materials, carefully collected, and properly digested, the Publishers flatter themselves, it is now in their Power to present the most correct and complete MAP of the Colony of SOUTH-CAROLINA, which induces them to hope for that Favour and Encouragement, which the Public are ever generous enough to afford to those who contribute in any Manner to their Entertainment.
